

Release of teacher materials | Saturday 20 July 2024

Release of recorded student material | Wednesday 24 July 2024

Student Zoom Meetings | Tuesday 3 & Saturday 7 September 2024

Now in its fifth year, our annual pre-external examination event draws on our collective learning from 2020-2023 to deliver just what teachers and students need to help you feel motivated and prepared. With the very generous assistance of academics across the university sector, these events will provide expert support for General English, EAL/D and Literature.

ELABORATION

Our flexible mixed delivery allows you to conduct your own version of our curated materials from the comfort of your own school or home – or a combination of both. The program will consist of three segments:

- Online, self-paced teacher preparation materials, via Vimeo.
- An online suite of teaching/student resources including pre-recorded videos and sample handouts, accessible from our website and Vimeo.
- Teachers register their class and can participate in a real time Q&A with their students on Tues 3 or Sat 7 September.

Pre-recorded materials will remain available to all participants until the examination week in October.

An individual student can register independently for the student segments and the Q&A sessions.

New! Never Let Me Go, Prof Jessica Gildersleeve; Othello, Jason Klarwein, Pride and Prejudice, Tara East and Catch 22, Evan Milner
